

A Proclamation of the Board of Directors of Las Virgenes Municipal Water District on the Centennial of the Association of California Water Agencies

Whereas, for the last 100 years, the Association of California Water Agencies (ACWA) has provided visionary leadership, research, guidance and direction on making the best uses of the state's limited water resources and,

Whereas, ACWA represents the interests of all regions and water users throughout California, helping to shape policies allowing agricultural and urban water agencies to serve their customers high quality and reliable water and,

Whereas, ACWA is respected as an authoritative voice concerning water issues on legislative, policy formation and regulatory matters that are discussed in Sacramento and in Washington, D.C. and,

Whereas, member agencies throughout the state rely upon ACWA to represent their interests, educate the public and develop forward-looking policies that will ensure continuous water supply reliability and,

Whereas, through its history, ACWA's efforts have provided the foundation for sustainable growth and prosperity throughout California and,

Whereas, over the last 100 years, the leadership and staff of ACWA have come to embody the theme, "A Century of Leadership, Vision for the Future,"

Now be it known to all that the Board of Directors of Las Virgenes Municipal Water District hereby honors the extraordinary 100-year history and many accomplishments of the Association of California Water Agencies.
