Region Appointments:

Roles & Responsibilities

Committee Reporter

Region Committee Reporters facilitate communication between their region and committees. Reporters are identified on committee rosters.

- Check in with their region board to collect input and feedback on relevant committee items.
- Ensure the region's perspective and input is represented to the committee.
- Update the region board on committee activities. This should be done periodically throughout the year, as the committee meets, or as requested by the region board.
- Attend the region membership meetings and report on committee activities. These meetings are generally held at ACWA spring and fall conferences, and region boards may also request updates at other times throughout the year.

Outreach Captain

ACWA's Outreach Program serves as the grassroots function for the association, engaging members in advancing ACWA's legislative and regulatory goals.

- Serve on the Outreach Task Force and participate in Outreach Task Force meetings.
- Provide outreach updates during region membership meetings at ACWA Spring and Fall Conference.
- Coordinate with the region board on outreach to your region.
- Build a targeted outreach list of key officials to amplify ACWA's message.
- Recruit more ambassadors within their region and serve as a resource for them.
- Participate in and promote ACWA Outreach Awards.
